Coffelt Bio

I am a full-time artist living and working in Brooklyn, New York. I use many different objectives to express myself including appropriation, book arts, collage, painting and sculpture. Most of my work is noted for being cerebral in nature. As a post-modernist, I consider myself a colorist above all else and I tend to work with ideas of chaos and order.

At this point, I have had more than 50 solo exhibitions and over 150 group exhibitions around the world including Atlanta Georgia, Birmingham Alabama, Boca Raton Florida, Boston Massachusetts, Brooklyn New York, Charleston South Carolina, Chattanooga Tennessee, Cincinnati Ohio, Culver City California, Huntsville Alabama, Los Angeles, New Orleans Louisiana, Nashville Tennessee, New York New York, Miami Florida, Minneapolis Minnesota, Mobile Alabama, Montgomery Alabama, Oakland California, Palo Alto California, Philadelphia Pennsylvania, Portland Oregon, Salt Lake City Utah, San Diego California, San Francisco California, Sheboygan Wisconsin St. Louis Missouri and Teaneck New Jersey as well as internationally in Barcelona Spain, Cork County Ireland, East Sussex United Kingdom, Kyoto Japan, London England, Manuel Antonio Costa Rica, Mexico City Mexico, Montreal Canada, San Juan Puerto Rico, Stockholm Sweden, Tokyo Japan and Venice Italy. I have also been exhibited in TenCubed art gallery in Second Life.

From 1993 to 2001, I owned and operated AGNES with my partner Shawn, where I curated more than 80 exhibitions. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Agnes_\(gallery\)) We opened our doors with a mission statement to raise public awareness about various social issues, including AIDS, breast cancer, civil rights, death, environmental concerns, ethics, homelessness through photography, short film/video, concrete poetry and book arts.

I have worked with Visual AIDS since "The Electric Blanket" and AGNES hosted it's first World's AIDS Day in 1993.

From 1994 to 1996 , I founded Alabama Art Monthly in Birmingham, Alabama. AAM was the state's first gallery guide. I was also the magazine's publisher and it's first editor.

Currently, I make art and sometimes I curate artists' book exhibitions independently for private, not-for-profit galleries and alternative venues. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jon_Coffelt
