

About Mary McFerran

Mary McFerran is a life long New Yorker, raised upstate, spending early adult years in lower Manhattan and now living in Croton-on-Hudson with her architect husband and her black mini-dachshund, Agnes Martin. In the 1980's and 90's, McFerran practiced video art and was part of the artist group, COLAB. She resided in London, UK, from 2009-14, where she happily discovered "textile art." McFerran works as a teaching artist for ArtsWestchester and community centers. She has a studio in Peekskill, NY and is a member of the Textile Study Group of NY.
