

Education:

1971 BA Geography, Northwest Missouri State University, Maryville,
Missouri
Studied ceramics with Russell Schmaljohn

Post Educational Studies:

1985 Spirit Square, Josh Green, Instructor
1986 Foundry Clay Studio, Josh Green, Instructor
2001 Augusta Heritage Center – Elkins, West Virginia, Gary Roper,
Workshop Instructor

Work Experience:

Since 1990 Full-time studio potter
1973–1975 Co-owner and ceramics instructor, Centreville Craftsmen, Kearney, Missouri

Exhibitions:

2007 Prometheus Gallery, Getty Center, Rock Hill, South Carolina
NCECA, Circle of Eight, Mad About Art, Louisville, Kentucky
2006 Wooden Stone Gallery, Davidson, North Carolina, Circle of Eight
2005 Red Sky Gallery, Charlotte, North Carolina, Second Annual Teapot Extravaganza
Carolina Clay Matters Guild Show, Charlotte Douglas International Airport, North Carolina
2004 Red Sky Gallery, Charlotte, North Carolina, Teapot Extravaganza
2003 The Clay Place, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania Instructors Who Teach
2001 NCECA – South Carolina Clay 2001, Winthrop University, Rock Hill, South Carolina Invitational and Juried Exhibition of Contemporary South Carolina Artists
Spratt-Burroughs Gallery, York, South Carolina, Opening Exhibition
2001 Full Circle Arts, Hickory, North Carolina
2000 Lawson Gallery, York, South Carolina, Teapots

Awards:

- 2005 Second Annual National Teapot Extravaganza, Red Sky Gallery,
Charlotte, North Carolina, Best Oriental Design
- 2004 Teapot Extravaganza, Red Sky Gallery, Charlotte North Carolina,
Best of Show, Juror-Melissa Post, Curator, Mint Museum of Craft and Design
- 2001 Full Circle Arts, Hickory, North Carolina, Honorable Mention

Publications:

- 2002 500 Teapots, Lark Books, Asheville, North Carolina

Lectures:

- 2002 Cleveland County Art Council, Shelby North Carolina, Incorporating Texture in Pottery

Professional Affiliations:

- Since 2003 Carolina Clay Matters Guild
- Since 2005 Potters Council