Values

INSPIRATION. I seek to create environments that are visually exciting and leave lasting impressions.

COLLABORATION. I understand that open communication with all participants is vital to success.

REGIONAL. Respect and loyalty to my California roots drives me to focus on local culture and identity.

About

Ann Trinca is an independent curator with 13 years of experience curating and marketing contemporary art exhibitions around the Bay Area. She earned her B.A. in Art History from the University of San Francisco and her M.A.A (Arts Administration) from Golden Gate University. She has worked for some of the most progressive arts institutions in the region including Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, Bedford Gallery, and di Rosa. In 2007 she established her first pop-up gallery in Napa presenting rotating exhibitions and community programs and co-founded another pop-up space in Calistoga in 2012. She has consulted for such organizations as Sonoma Valley Museum of Art, Brown Street Gallery, and the Napa Valley Museum. Through these positions she has built a strong network of regional artists, galleries, collectors, and nonprofits with whom she collaborates.
