

Maggie Yee Santa Cruz, California . Email: maggie@maggiyee.com

Born in Honolulu, partly self taught, and West Coast educated, I was a graphic designer for seventeen years. I self published “Maggie’s Men’s Group” subtitled Collective Figure Drawings: Under the influence of wine, chocolate & conversation. I also contributed original collage works to Joe Cardella’s “Art/Life” Magazine. That compelled me to launch “Folio 94, Conversation for Those Who Create” in Honolulu. Like “Art/Life”, Folio 94 was a portable gallery style of hand bound images, 3-D design, and poems. This led me to participate in International Mail Art (Postal Art) for a few years. Currently, Project Manager and an art facilitator for A Place of Her Own Arts Healing Residency in San Francisco, CA. I am also a seasonal scenic painter for Cabrillo Stage. I live and work in Santa Cruz, California.
